

like fingernails on a chalkboard, if you will refrain from pronouncing our nation's capital as "Warshington" and pronounce it the way it should be, Washington, because we wash our clothes, w-a-s-h. It is w-a-s-h in our nation's capital and we'll, well, maybe that will be the compromise ground on that, so we can each wear at each other as we go. Thank you, Senator Chambers, and thank you Chair.

SENATOR HALL: Thank you, Senator Bernard-Stevens. Senator Schimek, your light is next.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Thank you, Mr. President, members of the body. While we are at it, it is lawyer, not "loyer", and it is juvenile, not "juvenisle". But having said all that, I wasn't going to...I rise to speak against the bracket motion, and, Senator Bernard-Stevens, where are you when I need you. Could you respond to a question please. Could you briefly respond to a question. This is a yes or no question, I think.

SENATOR HALL: Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Bernard-Stevens,...

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Yes.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: ...do you vote red on every General File bill?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: No.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But you don't know what amendments are going to be offered on Select File, do you?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I have to do yes or no on these, do I? No.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: This is great. This is really brief. Well, my point is you are recommending that we don't pass this over to General File because we don't know what amendments are going to be offered on Select File, and I don't think you get to respond to this one, Senator Bernard-Stevens, and I don't think that is a good enough reason. And I am not sure that the reason I am not supporting this bracket motion is a good enough reason or not in other people's minds, but I would like to say that we will have two more rounds of debate if we want two more rounds of debate. We do that on many bills. We have a debate by
